RECALL DISCUSSED BY OGDEN MINISTER

The Rev. G. F. Rassweiler ers in Row; One Hands nent Questions.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1. Declaring that it is grossly inconsistent for certain interests to advocate the recall of municipal officials through trial by law and then atcompt to dislodge the present members of the Ogden board by legislation, the Rev. Methodist church, has taked a public statement by which he hopes to learn the true attitude of the people. This is his statement:

the true attitude of the people. This is its statement:

Our attention has been called to the full of the Hon. Bennor X. Smith, which purposes to give cities the right to recall its city officials. Here in Ogden a very pointed protest was recently made, declaring that the only kind of recall advisable or necessary was a trial by law. Tet from this very source comes the advocacy of the attempt to recall our city commissioners by action of the legislature. Are the people of Ogden supposed to be too blind to see this glaring inconsistency?

Now, if we are to have the recall at all, ladn't we better have it in our own hands, rather than in the bands of those of other cities? Hadn't we better have it left to a majority of our voters, rather than to a select few? Wouldn't it be better to have the question put squarely before us, rather than to kake it over our heads to the state house? I am wondering how the majority of our Ogden citizens think about this question. Are they going to have the people of other cities unsent them? Are they going to rest content to elect officials in the open, only to have then recalled by secret pull and political barter? If there is to be any recalling at all, don't our citizens want to do it themselves?

I am still quite a stranger in this selves?

I am still quite a stranger in this city, and I am naturally curious to hear an expression from the people at large on this question. I am wondering whether they will approve of such a method. Is there no way to get a full expression of opinion? Tours for a square deal.

NOTED PASTOR COMING

The Rev. Robert Arthur Elwood Is to Deliver Address in Ogden. Special to The Tribune.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. I.—Robert Arthur Elwood, the minister who is pastor of a church which has no choir, no officials, no members and no collections, is to speak at the First Presbyterian church in this city next Tuesday night. When it was learned that the Rev. Mr. Elwood would pass through the city on Tuesday, arrangements were quickly completed whereby the lecture engagement was made possible.

whereby the lecture engagement was made possible.

From May to September each year the Rev. Mr. Elwood presides at the famous Boardwalk church, Atlantic City, N. J. He and a planist are "the church," for he preaches in a huge theater to the thousands of visitors at the seaside resort, and at least 35 per cent of his congregation are total strangers. During the remaining months of the year the Rev. Mr. Elwood is in great demand as a lecturer at Y. M. C. A. gatherings and other popular meetings. He is regarded from the lecture platform standpoint as a ligh-priced man, but as he is given an opportunity to remain in Ogden a day before proceeding to the coast to fill locture engagements, he accepted the invitation to deliver what practically amounts to a complimentary lecture.

MAY ASK AMENDMENT.

Committee at Ogden Wants $20,000 for Roads In Box Elder County. Special to The Tribune.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1.—As the result of a conference held by the legislative committee of the Overland Trail association, it is probable that an amendment will be introduced in the state legislature asking that $20,000 of the appropriation proposed by the Midland trail bill be appropriated for the improvement of roads in Box Elder county. By amending the bill thus the Overland association is certain that no matter where the transcontain that no matter where the transconbill thus the Overland association is certain that no matter where the transcontinental highway enters the state from the east, it will go out to the west around the north end of the lake.

The legislative committee of the association formed by representatives of the northern counties in this city a few days ago consists of C. R. Hollingsworth, A. P. Bigelow and R. E. Bristol. The committee met at the Weber club this afternoon, but a final decision will not be reached until tomorrow, when another session is to be held.

Record of Men Sought Special to The Tribune.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1.—Cards have been received at the police headquarters bearing photographs of James A. Connelly and Harry A. Payne, two young men who are held in Los Angeles under $5000 bonds each for grand larceny. The cards were accompanied by a letter asking for the Ogden records of the two men. Both were employed in the automobile industry here last summer and while so engaged they took a car from a garage and indulged in a joy ride through Ogden canyon. Following their arrest at the Sanitarium each served sixty days in the city juil. According to the Los Angeles press dispatches, Connelly and Payne are charged with stealing $2000 worth of jewelry.

Fumigation Discussed

Special to The Tribune. Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1.—At a meeting held in the county building this afternoon County Physician A. A. Robinson explained to the members of the health board and the health officials of the various districts the instructions regarding the funigation of buildings where there has been contagious disease, and also the regulations regarding quarantine. In the opinion of the county physician all public buildings should be thoroughly renovated and fumigated at least once each year and he also favors the fumigation of residences once a year, even though there has been no disease in the house. In. Robinson proposes to fight contagious disease by the prevention method.

Aged Man Sentenced.

Special to The Tribune. Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1.—The representation that he was the father of twenty children did not earn much clemency for John N. Ford, when he was arraigned before Judge W. H. Reeder this morning for disturbing the peace at the home of Mrs. Thomas McDonald, 2715 Grant avenue. A sentence of ten days in the city fall without the usual alternative of paying a fine was recorded.

Statement Dismissed.

Special to The Tribune. OGDEN. Feb. 1.—To allay any fear that the money was not expended for the purposes to which it was subscribed by the business men of the city, the general committee in charge of the arrangements for convention week, January 20 to 25, has issued an itemized statement of the disbursaments. It is with much gratification that the committee reports all bills paid and that there is a cash halance of $122.15. The total amount sub-scribed was $718.50 and the disburse-ments totaled $504.55. The largest single item of expense for convention was the rent for the Orpheum theater, this amounting to $225.

BROOKS IS SURRENDERED.

Returned to Authorities by Brothers After

Escape From Deputy Sheriff, Special to The Tribune

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1.—Although the prisoner escaped while at the home of his mother in Salt Lake last night, Fred E. Brooks, beld on a charge of issuing worthless checks on a Malad bank, was brought back to this city by Peputy Sheriff George Leatham today and is once more confined in a cell at the county jail. Bather than have the man add to his alleged crimes by becoming a fugitive, the brothers turned Brooks over to the local officer when he returned to the home of his mother today.

According to Sheriff E. E. Harrison, Brooks comes from a very well known and respected family in Ealt Lake. For this reason he was given every opportu-this reason he was given every opportunity to furnish security on the $600 bonds under which he is held to the Second district court. Deputy Leatham accompanied Brooks to Salt Lake for this purpose to the second state of the s bose yesterday, and when the prisoner was permitted to enter a room alone to change his clothes he accepted the opportunity to climb through a window and

The local deputy remained in Salt Lake last night, but failed to locate his man until today. The relatives are very desirous of equaring the man's accounts, which are said to reach almost $1000. He will endeavor to sell a farm near Malad, Ida., and pay all daims.

Special to The Tribune. Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. I.—One of the leading educators of the state, a woman who has been prominent in social work, will be heard in this city temorrow evening, when Miss Clare Colburne, principal of Rowland ball, Salt Lake, will deliver a lecture before the members of the Sunday Night cinb at the parish house of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Off for California.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1.—The Ogden delega-tion, which departed today on the spe-cial excursion to California, consisted of cial excursion to California, consisted of about sixty persons, who occupied two Pullman cars. The special train from the north over the Ogden Short Line was made up of three coaches from Boise, four from Butte and two Pullmans from this city. The train left Ogden at 16:30 o'clock this forencen and composed one of the three sections of the special excursion departing during the afternoon over the Salt Lake Route.

New Milling Plant.

Special to The Tribune. Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. 1.—Word has been received here that C. B. Eisenberg, an Ogden man, is the principal promoter of a new milling enterprise at Snowville, Utah. The company, which is known as the Corlew Milling & Elevator company, is planning the erection of a mill, elevator and electric light plant. The officers of the company are J. J. Lakin, president, C. E. Eisenberg, vice president; Thomas Roe, secretary, and J. C. Cutler, treasurer.

Committed to Asylum.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Feb. I.—Mrs. Kate Clenny, who has been adjudged insane by a board of medical examiners appointed by the district court, will be taken to the State Mental hospital at Provo tomorrow. A few weeks ago the woman was struck by a street car, receiving a gash on the forehead and a fracture of the frontal bone. Since that time she has been confined to the Dee hospital and has completely recovered from the physical injuries, but during her stay at the hospital her mental derangement was discovered. Searching for Boyd.

Special to The Tribune. OGDEN. Feb. 1.—With indications that he will be called upon to face a charge of petit larceny, in addition to that of breaking quarantine, the local officers are still searching for Edward Boyd, who made his escape from the city and county detention hospital here a week ego. It has now been ascertained
